10 MR. MASTER: Thank you, your Honor.

11 DIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY MR. MASTER:

13 Q. Where are you currently employed, sir?

14 A. I work for the New York City Department of Investigation.

15 Q. And what is your title there?

16 A. I'm an inspector general.

17 Q. For which agencies do you service as the inspector general?

18 A. I'm the inspector general for -- one of the inspector
19 generals for squad one, covers the New York city department of 20 correction, sanitation, fire department, and various other
21 agencies.

22 Q. For how long have you worked for the department of 23 investigation?

24 A. Since 2006.

25 Q. Is that also known as DOI, by the way?

Gigante - direct

1 A. Yes, it is.

2 Q. What did you do before you worked as DOI?

3 A. Prior to working at DOI I worked for the New York city fire
4 department. I was a lawyer in their investigations and trials
5 unit.

6 Q. And you mentioned that you were a lawyer for the fire
7 department. What legal training do you have?

8 A. I have a J.D. and M.B.A. from Villanova University.

9 Q. What, if any, training have you received specific to the 10 issue of Miranda rights?

11 A. I have law school training from criminal law classes and 12 the various classes in law school. Additionally I'm a peace
13 officer for the New York City department of investigation,
14 which requires training. And there's training on Miranda
15 rights there as well.

16 Q. Now I'd like to direct your attention to the early morning
17 of December 15, 2010.

18 A. Okay.

19 Q. Where were you employed at that time?

20 A. At that time I was also -- I was at the department of 21 investigation.

22 Q. Who was your supervisor at that time?

23 A. The deputy commissioner for investigation Richard Sullivan.

24 Q. What, if anything, did deputy commissioner Sullivan ask you
25 to do that morning?

Gigante - direct

1 A. He asked me to accompany him and provide two teams for the 2 approach and arrest of Mark Mazer.

3 Q. When you say provide two teams, two teams of what?

4 A. Peace officers from my unit.

5 Q. And how else did you assist in addition to providing those 6 two teams?

7 A. In addition to providing those two teams I went with 8 Mr. Sullivan to Mr. Mazer's house.

9 Additionally, after the fact, I wrote up a memorandum
10 on the day's events.

11 Q. Where did you go to effect the arrest?

12 A. We went to Mr. Mazer's house in Manhasset, New York.

13 Q. Were you the lead investigator on this case?

14 A. No, I was not.

15 Q. What, if any, prior involvement did you have in the 16 investigation?

17 A. I was not the primary investigator. It wasn't handled in 18 my group, my shop. But the day or so before we had a general
19 meeting that went over what was going to be happening and the 20 day's events, so had some basic familiarity with the case.

21 Q. And what, if any, awareness did you have of other arrests
22 being effected that day?

23 A. I knew that -- the plan was there was going to be multiple 24 arrests and approaches throughout the day but I knew that our 25 approach was the first one.

Gigante - direct

1 Q. Now, who was present to handle securing the premises and
2 other details related to the arrests?

3 A. I had peace officers -- a couple groups of peace officers
4 with us.

5 Q. Now, who was with you to focus on the arrest of Mark Mazer?

6 A. Me, Rich Sullivan, the deputy commissioner of 7 investigation, Ron Gardella, and Bob Ryan, another federal 8 agent.

9 Q. At approximately what time did you approach the door?

10 A. About 6:50.

11 Q. And how did you let them know that you were there?

12 A. We rang the bell and knocked on the door.

13 Q. How, if at all, did you identify yourselves as law
14 enforcement?

15 A. We had shields present and we announced that we were from 16 the department of investigation, as well as federal agents.

17 Q. Did there come a time when someone went to the door and 18 actually opened it from the inside?

19 A. Yes. Mr. Mazer opened the door.

20 Q. And what, if anything, did investigator Gardella say to 21 Mark Mazer when he answered the door?

22 A. We told him -- Mr. Gardella said that we had an arrest
23 warrant, a federal arrest warrant. It was a very serious
24 situation and we wanted to speak with him. At that point
25 Mr. Mazer invited us in and we entered into the house.

Gigante - direct

1 Q. Who, if anyone, entered behind you and the others who you
2 mentioned?

3 A. The additional teams of peace officers came in with us
4 behind us, as well as Rich Sullivan, Ron Gardella, and Bob
5 Ryan.

6 Q. And at approximately what time had you all gained access
7 into the home.

8 A. About 8:23.

9 Q. I'm sorry?

10 A. 8:23 -- I'm sorry, 6:23. Apologize.

11 Q. Now who actually was responsible for going into each room
12 and securing the premises?

13 A. The other peace officer teams.

14 Q. And while those peace officer teams were securing the 15 premises, did there come a time when Mark Mazer said that he 16 needed to go upstairs?

17 A. Yes. He asked if he could throw some water on his face. I
18 accompanied him upstairs. He went into the bathroom. And we 19 came down after.

20 Q. And then how soon after everyone had gained access to the 21 premises did he ask to go upstairs?

22 A. Almost immediately.

23 Q. And you say that you accompanied him upstairs?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. Now what, if any, questions did you ask him while he was

Gigante - direct

1 upstairs?

2 A. I didn't ask him any questions while we were upstairs.

3 Q. And after he was done upstairs, where did you go?

4 A. We came back downstairs and went into the dining room where
5 Mr. Mazer sat at the dining room table.

6 Q. And what, if any, restraints were on him as he sat down at 7 the dining room table?

8 A. He had no restraints on him.

9 Q. And who else other than yourself was around the dining room
10 table?

11 A. Rich Sullivan, Ron Gardella and Bob Ryan.

12 Q. And did there come a time when Mark Mazer asked if he could 13 have some coffee?

14 A. He did. He asked if he could have some coffee. I walked
15 with him to the kitchen. He went to a very large, elaborate
16 coffee machine, pressed a button, got some coffee, and then we 17 walked back into the dining room table and he sat back down.

18 Q. Who among you spoke first?

19 A. Ron Gardella started by saying basically that this was very 20 serious matter. We had a federal arrest warrant for his 21 arrest. And just explained to him that this was his 22 opportunity to help himself. And at that time Ron administered
23 Miranda rights.

24 Q. And what, if anything, did you observe investigator
25 Gardella doing when he was administering the Miranda rights?

Gigante - direct

1 A. He was reading the Miranda warnings, and I saw him looking
2 down at his hand where he had something in his hand.

3 Q. How did you recognize investigator Gardella's statements to 4 be the Miranda warnings?

5 A. I've given them multiple times before. I also have legal
6 training from law school as well as the peace officer training
7 program where we learned to make and effect arrests which, of 8 course, includes giving Miranda warnings.

9 Q. And at approximately what time were the Miranda warnings
10 administered?

11 A. 6:30.

12 Q. Now, after Mazer was read his Miranda warnings did he agree
13 to speak with you?

14 A. Yes, he did.

15 Q. And what was your responsibility while he was speaking and 16 being questioned?

17 A. I stood off to the side a little bit. I took some notes
18 and sometime the next day I, and the day after, I wrote a memo
19 from my memory and looked at the notes while I was making the 20 memo.

21 Q. And who was doing the questioning?

22 A. For the most part it was Rich Sullivan and Ron Gardella.

23 Q. And where were you taking the notes?

24 A. I was standing a little bit off to the side of him, about 25 two or three feet, I think.

Gigante - direct

1 Q. Did you write down everything I single thing -- every
2 question that was asked?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Did you write down every single thing that Mark Mazer said?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Why not?

7 A. I just wanted a couple things that -- if I needed to jog my
8 memory that I could look at the next day when I did the memo.

9 Q. And you mentioned just a moment ago that at some point he 10 asked for coffee. Did there come a time when he asked for 11 other drinks?

12 A. Yeah. He asked for a water at one point too. And I
13 escorted him to the kitchen and he got water and came back.

14 Q. Now did there come a time when she stopped answering
15 questions?

16 A. Yes. Towards the end he just sort of got very silent and 17 wasn't answering any questions. At that point he sort of -- he 18 made a statement where he said: Well, if you're here to take
19 me away, then take me away. And he stuck his hands out in a
20 motion where to give us his wrists to handcuff him.

21 Q. And was he questioned at all after he made that statement
22 and made that gesture?

23 A. No. We didn't ask him any more questions after that.

24 Q. And when, if ever, did he ask for an attorney during 25 questioning?

Gigante - direct

1 A. He never asked for an attorney during questioning.

2 Q. Or how about at any point during your direction?

3 A. During my direction, he never asked for an attorney.

4 Q. Now what, if anything, had to be done before Mazer -- Mark
5 Mazer could be transported for processing?

6 A. We were also -- his wife was also arrested that day in the 7 house and there were also two kids and one of them was fairly
8 young so we wanted to make sure the kids were taken care of and 9 that we weren't leaving them alone and the house was secured
10 before we left.

11 Q. So at approximately what time did you end up actually 12 leaving?

13 A. 7:50 or so.

14 MR. MASTER: Now, your Honor, I just request
15 permission, since Mr. Shargel has raised the issue of inspector
16 general Gigante's notes in his brief, I just request permission
17 for inspector general Gigante to briefly explain where he 18 documented the various things that he was describing in the 19 notes.

20 THE COURT: Go question by question and let me see 21 what your questions are.

22 Q. Inspector general Gigante, have you reviewed your notes in 23 preparation for your testimony today?

24 A. I have.

25 Q. Have you also reviewed the memo that you generated based on

Gigante - direct

1 your recollections with the notes as a refresher?

2 A. I have.

3 Q. And I'd just like you to take a brief look before you.

4 They are facedown. If you could just take a brief look at

5 what's been marked for identification as 3501A and 3501B.

6 A. 3501A.

7 Q. Do you recognize 3501A?

8 A. I do.

9 Q. What is 3501A?

10 A. It's the memo that I created dated December 17.

11 Q. How about 3501B? Do you recognize that?

12 A. I do. They are two pages of my handwritten notes from that 13 day.

14 MR. MASTER: So, your Honor, I can offer these into 15 evidence if it's relevant or I can just, with the permission of 16 the Court, question Mr. Gigante based on.

17 THE COURT: You can proceed either way you want unless 18 Mr. Shargel has an objection.

19 MR. SHARGEL: No. I have no objection to introducing
20 the notes.

21 MR. MASTER: Government offers --

22 MR. SHARGEL: Or questioning on the basis of the 23 notes, whichever.

24 THE COURT: Then I'll admit the notes in evidence,
25 3501A and B for the hearing.

Gigante - direct

1 MR. MASTER: Thank you, your Honor.

2 (Government's Exhibits 3501A and 3501B received in 3 evidence)

4 Q. So turning first to 3501B. When did you actually take 5 these notes?

6 A. I took them when we approached the house and while we were 7 inside the house.

8 Q. Where did you write down -- where on these notes did you
9 write down the time of knocking on the door and the time that 10 everyone had successfully entered the house?

11 A. At the top. I also dated it at the top of the first page.

12 Q. The top of the first page?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And then where did you write down the time that Miranda was 15 given to Mark Mazer?

16 A. On the second page in the middle towards the bottom.

17 Q. And initially what did you write down?

18 A. 6:30.

19 Q. And where did you write down where -- I guess the 20 statements to jog your memory as to what Mark Mazer had said?

21 A. I started on the first page underneath the enter time, exit
22 time, and Mr. Mazer's name.

23 Q. And for how long do those -- I guess those notes on his 24 statement continue?

25 A. They continue -- the first page and then into the second

Gigante - direct

1 page about halfway.

2 Q. What's the last note that you made about his statement?

3 A. The last note I made about his statement was: Did not know
4 Anna Makovetskaya nor MAS. That's the last note about, from 5 his statement.

6 Q. And then there's some writing at the bottom of that page.
7 When did you write those statements other than the -- I guess
8 the times?

9 A. When he was done speaking and we were getting ready for 10 transport and making sure the residence was secure and the kids
11 were taken care of, I just jotted down a couple more things,
12 the fact that he wanted coffee, the fact that he wanted water.
13 He asked to speak to his wife. We let him speak to his wife at 14 the kitchen table. So I wrote down that. I went back and I
15 wrote Miranda and Ron Gardella, and arrow to the 6:30 because 16 that's what it was and that's who gave it to him. And then at 17 the end I put down he was silent towards the end.

18 Q. You said you departed the premises around 7:50. Where did
19 you write that down?

20 A. Back at the top, right underneath the entry time.

21 Q. And, again, what was the purpose of these notes?

22 A. The purposes of these notes were to keep track of certain
23 times and have some notes to assist my memory when I was making
24 the memo the next day.

25 Q. And when did you actually draft the memo?

Gigante - direct

1 A. I drafted the memo at the end of the next day and it was 2 finalized the next day, the 17th.

3 Q. That the memo that's marked and introduced into evidence as
4 3501A?

5 A. It is.

6 Q. How fresh were the events of December 15 in your mind when 7 you drafted that memo?

8 A. Very fresh.

9 Q. And what efforts did you take to make sure that your 10 recollection was accurate as you were typing this memo?

11 A. I wrote up the memo from my memory and then I also checked
12 the notes to see what other notes I took down that day.

13 Q. And where, if at all, did you document the giving of the 14 Miranda rights to Mark Mazer on this memo that's marked as
15 3501A?

16 A. In the beginning, the second paragraph.

17 Q. That's where you stated: Mazer was advised of his rights
18 and read Miranda warnings by agent Gardella at 0630 hours and 19 agreed to speak with us?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. How well, as you sit here today, do you remember Ron
22 Gardella doing exactly that, reading the Miranda rights to Mark
23 Mazer?

24 A. I remember it well.

25 MR. MASTER: No further questions.

Gigante - direct

1 MR. SHARGEL: Is this marked as an exhibit? When I
2 say "this," the notes that you just referred to?

3 MR. MASTER: I marked -- just for the record, your
4 Honor, I marked the copies that we had provided in discovery as 5 3501A and 3501B. Mr. Shargel had requested that we bring the 6 original signed memo and the original pen and paper notes with 7 us. We accommodated that request. I'm happy for them to be
8 marked as a Government Exhibit or a Defense Exhibit. I haven't
9 introduced them yet.

10 MR. SHARGEL: I'll introduce them as Defense Exhibit 1
11 and Defense Exhibit -- I'll say A. Defense Exhibit A, which 12 are the formal notes of December 17, 2010, also been referred 13 to as 3501A.

14 THE COURT: Is that the exact same document, just the 15 original?

16 MR. SHARGEL: This is the -- this is the prepared
17 report that he prepared as he has testified after the event on 18 the 16th and 17th.

19 THE COURT: So Defense A is the original and 3501A is 20 a copy of that document?

21 MR. SHARGEL: Yes. So without objection?

22 MR. MASTER: Absolutely.

23 MR. SHARGEL: And I'm also offering as Defense Exhibit
24 B the handwritten notes that have been referred to. These are 25 the original notes.

Gigante - direct

1 THE COURT: So you want both the copy and the
2 original?

3 MR. SHARGEL: It's actually not the copy. This is not
4 a copy. Let me explain.

5 THE COURT: 3501A is a copy of defense A? No? That's 6 where you confuse me.

7 MR. SHARGEL: I think that is right. Now I'm
8 referring to 3501B.

9 THE COURT: 3501B is a copy of Defendant's B?

10 MR. SHARGEL: I'm offering the original. But yes.
11 The answer is yes. We know what we're going to be talking
12 about.

13 THE COURT: So you want the original -- you want
14 Defense A and Defense B in evidence?

15 MR. SHARGEL: Yes.

16 THE COURT: And those documents are the original
17 documents?

18 MR. SHARGEL: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Of 3501A and 3501B?

20 MR. SHARGEL: Correct.

21 THE COURT: They will be admitted into evidence for 22 the hearing.

23 (Defendant's Exhibits A and B received in evidence)

1 CROSS-EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. SHARGEL:

3 Q. When did you turn these notes -- is it deputy inspector
4 Gigante?

5 A. It's inspector general Gigante.

6 Q. Can I just call you Mr. Gigante?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. Mr. Gigante, when did you turn what's been marked as 9 Defense Exhibit B, the notes that you took contemporaneously on 10 December 15, 2010 --

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. That was the date, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. When did you hand these over to the U.S. Attorney's Office?

15 A. I don't know. I don't know when they were handed over to 16 the U.S. Attorney's Office.

17 Q. I'm sorry?

18 A. I don't know when they were handed over to the U.S.
19 Attorney's Office. I finished my memo and attached the notes
20 to them and handed them to the person who had the file.

21 Q. Well when did you turn them over to -- did you turn them
22 over to a superior person at the department of investigation?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Were they in your possession?

25 A. They were on the 10th when I wrote them, the 16th and

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 the 17th.

2 Q. When after that?

3 A. After that I was done with them.

4 Q. Well, you were done with them. Did there come a time when
5 you learned that a motion to suppress had been made by Mark
6 Mazer? Did there come a time that that happened?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did there come a time when you learned that events of 9 December 15 and the early morning hours of December 15, 2010
10 would be an issue in this case?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And do you recall as you sit here now when the first time
13 you handed these notes over to any other officer, agent,
14 inspector, deputy inspector, anywhere?

15 A. I don't remember what date it was.

16 Q. Do you remember what year it was?

17 A. 2010.

18 Q. When in 2010? This is December 15. There are only two 19 weeks left in 2010. Do you have a memory, as you sit here now, 20 can you say by your oath that in 2010, in the remaining days of 21 that year, that you turned them over to someone?

22 A. I recall turning them over. If it wasn't the end of 2010
23 it was the beginning of 2011.

24 Q. Isn't it a fact, sir, that you turned these over to the 25 U.S. Attorney's Office after you learned that suppression and

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 Miranda warnings would be an issue in this case?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Didn't you, sir, in these few scratch notes if I may -- by 4 the way there was a request that you bring me the original
5 notebook if you had it, right?

6 A. I was asked for the original notes. I said I didn't have 7 them.

8 Q. The original notebook?

9 A. No. I was asked for the original notes.

10 Q. Just the notes. Well, you have them. They're here, aren't 11 they?

12 A. I haven't had them -- I haven't seen them -- I haven't seen
13 them since this morning. I haven't touched them since I turned 14 them over.

15 Q. These notes, these few notes that you took in your own
16 handwriting were the chronology of events that happened,
17 correct?

18 A. Not necessarily the chronology.

19 Q. Well didn't you make entries in these notes as things
20 developed?

21 A. I did.

22 Q. And did there come a time when there was some questioning
23 of Mr. Mazer?

24 A. There was.

25 Q. And did you make certain entries -- may I approach the

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 witness your Honor?

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 Q. Did you make certain entries beginning on page one of these 4 notes, did you make certain entries about events as they
5 occurred?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. You made entries after putting Mark Mazer, where he made a
8 statement, right? Yes?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And after that first line, after Mark Mazer, the second
11 line is something else claimed to have been said, right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And on, and on, and on, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. The important date -- times were in the upper left -- I
16 don't want to rip the document, it's stapled -- but they were 17 in the upper left corner, right?

18 A. Which times?

19 Q. These times, 7:50. That's when you left the residence?

20 A. That's when I left the residence.

21 Q. What's the other time? Can you read that?

22 A. I can't read it. There's a staple over it. It's 6:23 and 23 6:15.

24 Q. Don't destroy the integrity of the exhibit.

25 A. I didn't.

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 Q. I will show you in one moment.

2 A. Sure.

3 THE COURT: Might be easier to show him the 3500.

4 BY MR. SHARGEL:

5 Q. Now I'm using 3501B for identification. I show you what's 6 been -- 3501B for identification.

7 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: I believe it's in evidence.

9 MR. SHARGEL: In evidence.

10 Q. What's this time? When I say "this" I mean on the first 11 page of that exhibit.

12 A. Approximately 6:15.

13 Q. And then what's the time after it?

14 A. 6:23.

15 Q. So this is where you were keeping all of the important
16 times when you knocked on the door, right?

17 A. That's where we knocked on the door.

18 Q. 6:15. 6:23 he comes down, correct?

19 A. Yep.

20 Q. And 7:50 is when you leave, right?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. By the way, because it's your handwriting not mine. What 23 is that word on page two.

24 When I say "that word" I mean from the second line
25 from the bottom on page two of the exhibit, what's that word?

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 6:37?

2 A. That's wife.

3 Q. Wife 6:37?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. What does wife 6:37 mean as you wrote it down?

6 A. That's when she got read her rights.

7 Q. I'm sorry?

8 A. When she received Miranda rights.

9 Q. She was read the Miranda rights?

10 A. At 6:37.

11 Q. At 6:37?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And this word is wife, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And this is read in conjunction with 6:30, right?

16 A. No.

17 Q. No?

18 A. Can you repeat the question?

19 Q. 3501B for -- in evidence. I'm asking you this means -- is 20 this in connection with 6:30, 6:37?

21 A. No. The 6:30 is in connection with Miranda and Ron 22 Gardella. And then the 6:30 is in connection with the wife.

23 Q. 6:37?

24 A. 6:37. Yes.

25 Q. So let me ask you this question. When you said you put two

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 teams together, how many people on a team? How many people
2 were there?

3 A. Two people on each team.

4 Q. And were there other officers or agents -- I'll say
5 officers or agents present on the scene that day?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. How many, as best you can recall, tell the Court how many
8 agents, officers were on the scene that day?

9 A. That were in the house or on the scene?

10 Q. Well first people gathered at the perimeter, right?

11 A. Yes. We had people on the perimeter.

12 Q. In other words, people arrived in cars, correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. How many cars, as best you can recall?

15 A. I don't remember how many cars.

16 Q. Well how many agents, as best you can recall?

17 A. I don't remember specifically how many. I know how many 18 that I had there.

19 Q. As we have it, there were others who were not under your 20 supervision, right?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And did there come a time when you left whichever head --
23 where did you leave from? Let me ask a question. Where did
24 you leave from?

25 A. I don't remember the exact address. We met somewhere close

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 to Manhasset.

2 Q. And from that address somewhere close in Manhasset, a
3 number of cars, you don't remember the number, but a number of 4 cars headed toward the home, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And the cars contained a number of agents, including you
7 and deputy inspector Sullivan, right?

8 A. Deputy commissioner.

9 Q. Deputy commissioner Sullivan.

10 Mr. Sullivan is the supervisor of department of 11 investigation, right?

12 A. He's one of them.

13 Q. He's the deputy commissioner?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So several people go to the door, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. It's 6:15 in the morning now, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And there are people outside on the perimeter, right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And there are how many agents that actually go to the door?

22 A. When you say agents, there were two agents.

23 Q. When I say agents, I'm not breaking down officers, agents.

24 I mean law enforcement people, people whose assignment that day
25 was to arrest Mark Mazer, arrest his wife, and enforce the

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 laws, right. So when I use the officers or agents description,
2 you understand? We're on the same page?

3 A. Yes. I want to be clear.

4 Q. So whether it's an officer, whether it's an agent, whether
5 it's a deputy commissioner of the department of investigation
6 or even a New York City police officer, a number of people are 7 on the perimeter, right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And that is to make sure that the house is secured, right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. That is to avert any danger in executing the arrest, right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you had done this many times before, right?

14 A. I had.

15 Q. You studied it when you were in law school, right?

16 A. Not technically this, but I studied law.

17 Q. But you knew a whole lot about arrests, right?

18 A. Sure.

19 Q. Miranda and its progeny, correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. You approached the door. Mr. Sullivan approaches the door.
22 Who else?

23 A. Federal Agent Ron Gardella and Bob Ryan.

24 Q. 6:15. You knock on the door. And it takes some time for 25 Mr. Mazer to answer, right?

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 A. Yes. Not long.

2 Q. Not long?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. How long would you think?

5 A. I'd say a minute or two.

6 Q. And did you know that Mr. Mazer had children?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did you know that the children were in the house?

9 A. At the time we did not know but we found out as soon as we 10 got in there.

11 Q. Did you know how many children he had?

12 A. We knew there were at least two.

13 Q. And did you come to learn that there were three children
14 sleeping in the house?

15 A. I don't remember, to be honest with you.

16 Q. No recollection of that?

17 A. I remember at least two. There may have been a third, but 18 I don't remember.

19 Q. Mr. Mazer answers the intercom. You later learn that he 20 had an intercom, right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And he had a camera that showed him who was at the door,
23 right?

24 A. I don't remember that.

25 Q. You had a badge on?

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Around your neck, correct?

3 A. I believe it was on my lapel at the time.

4 Q. Who spoke when Mr. Mazer came to intercom?

5 A. Ron Gardella.

6 Q. And what did Mr. Gardella say?

7 A. He said that we are federal agents, and we need to speak
8 with him.

9 Q. And there came a time when Mr. Mazer came downstairs,
10 right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And you said that was approximately 6:23?

13 A. No. 6:23 we were in the house.

14 Q. You were in the house by 6:23?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And when you went into the house, did you see what 17 Mr. Mazer was wearing?

18 A. I don't remember what he was wearing.

19 Q. You don't remember what he was wearing?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Do you remember -- weren't you the agent -- I'll say agent,
22 weren't you the person who was assigned walking around the 23 house with Mr. Mazer?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And weren't you the person who went upstairs with him when

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 he asked to go upstairs and wash his face and attend to
2 whatever he needed to attend to upstairs, right?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. Weren't you that person?

5 A. I was.

6 Q. And is it your testimony now that you don't recall what he
7 was wearing at that time?

8 A. Yeah. I don't remember what he was wearing.

9 Q. Well does it refresh your recollection, do you remember
10 seeing pajamas on his bottom?

11 A. I don't remember what he was wearing.

12 Q. Do you remember that he was wearing a T-shirt on the top,
13 right?

14 A. Again, I don't remember what he was wearing.

15 Q. Well, you weren't expecting to take him to court with the 16 clothes he was sleeping in, were you?

17 A. No.

18 Q. You knew full well from your prior experience in other
19 arrests that you were going to give him an opportunity to get
20 dressed, right?

21 A. I'm sorry. Yep.

22 Q. So the answer to that is yep?

23 A. Yes. I'm sorry.

24 Q. So, do you remember a time when -- well just stay with the 25 chronology. So you come into the house and that's 6:27, is it?

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 A. 6:23.

2 Q. 6:23. So you're in the house. Is Mr. Mazer told that
3 there is a warrant for his arrest?

4 A. He was.

5 Q. Did -- was he told that there was a warrant for his wife's
6 arrest?

7 A. He was.

8 Q. And did he ask to go upstairs at that point?

9 A. He did.

10 Q. You went upstairs with him?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You say he was under no restraint when he was -- that
13 morning when he was sitting at the table -- jumping ahead a
14 little bit -- but when he was sitting at the table there was no
15 restraints, right?

16 A. I said he was not in restraints.

17 Q. So when he went upstairs to use the bathroom and get
18 dressed, no restraints, no handcuffs?

19 A. No handcuffs.

20 Q. That's what you meant when you said no restraints, right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. You get upstairs. And did Mr. Mazer use the bathroom?

23 A. He went into the bathroom, yes.

24 Q. And you actually went into the bathroom with him, right?

25 A. I went in first to see if there was any windows, and then I

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 stood at the door with the door open.

2 Q. He asked to close the door. You wouldn't allow him to
3 close the door, right?

4 A. I told him it had to stay open.

5 Q. Because that's common protocol? That's how it works?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So he wasn't under any restraint, but you were carefully
8 guarding his movements, right?

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. This was already after he had been told there was a
11 warrant -- people were there to arrest him, right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. There was never any confusion or mistake about that, right?

14 A. No.

15 Q. When does he ask for coffee?

16 A. I don't remember. It could have been when we came down. I
17 don't remember when he asked for coffee.

18 Q. Do you remember first him changing his clothes into street
19 wear, pants?

20 A. I don't remember.

21 Q. It was a December, early December morning. Did you see him
22 get a jacket from the closet, anything like that, before he 23 went downtown?

24 A. Before he went downtown. I don't remember. I'm sure he 25 probably did.

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 Q. You don't remember that at all?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Do you remember him washing his face and brushing his
4 teeth, those ordinary and mundane tasks?

5 A. Yes. I do remember.

6 Q. You remember that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Do you remember what time you get downstairs again?

9 A. I don't remember -- I didn't look at my watch when we got 10 back downstairs, no.

11 Q. Well the coffee wasn't on the second floor. The coffee was 12 in the kitchen on the first floor, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And you said he had a big fancy coffee pot. He offered
15 others coffee, right?

16 A. I don't remember if he did but I --

17 Q. Do you remember taking time to boil the water?

18 A. No. It wasn't like a boiling the water. It was a fancy
19 machine. You push the button and got coffee.

20 Q. Did you see him take the actual coffee that was going to be 21 used?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Did you see him do that?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did you see him put milk and sugar in the coffee? Did you

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 see him do that?

2 A. No.

3 Q. So what time was it, if you can recall, your best
4 recollection as you sit here now, what time was it that you get
5 to that table?

6 A. I don't remember what exactly time we sat at the table.

7 Q. You told us that when you sat at the table, regardless of 8 the time, that an agent began to talk, right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And the agent that first began to talk was which agent?

11 A. It was Ron Gardella.

12 Q. And deputy commissioner Richard Sullivan, he was at the 13 table also, wasn't he?

14 A. Yes, he was.

15 Q. You were at the table, weren't you?

16 A. I was not sitting at the table. I was standing in the 17 area.

18 Q. Standing nearby, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Obviously within earshot, right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And did you hear agent Gardella speaking to Mr. Mazer?

23 A. I did.

24 Q. And you knew full well that Mr. Mazer was going to be the 25 first one arrested that morning, correct?

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. There were other people throughout the city that were going
3 to be arrested. You heard that told to Mr. Mazer, right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And those -- you knew why you were in Mr. Mazer's house
6 first, correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. You understand the deal of cooperation and soliciting
9 someone's cooperation, right?

10 A. I do.

11 Q. And that was part of the plan that morning, right?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. To see if Mr. Mazer could be persuaded to cooperate against 14 others, right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you knew full well as an employee of the department of 17 investigation that those others were specific people who were 18 city officials, right?

19 A. Some of them were, yes.

20 Q. In fact, names were named? Names were put before
21 Mr. Mazer? You remember that, right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And this was all by Mr. Gardella, right?

24 A. Mr. Gardella and Mr. Sullivan.

25 Q. Actually you put in your note that there was no restraint

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 at this time, right?

2 A. (No response).

3 Q. No restraint?

4 A. I don't recall.

5 Q. You don't recall that?

6 Do you remember being interviewed again by the United
7 States Attorney's Office, anyone from the United States
8 Attorney's Office?

9 A. Being interviewed?

10 Q. Interviewed, preparing your testimony for this afternoon.

11 A. Yes. I met with the U.S. Attorney's Office.

12 Q. How long ago?

13 A. It was last week.

14 Q. So let me show you what's been marked here for 15 identification.

16 MR. SHARGEL: If I may, your Honor?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 BY MR. SHARGEL:

19 Q. 3501C for identification. I ask you to look at this and 20 tell us whether you recognize it.

21 A. I don't recognize it.

22 Q. Well looking at the content, does it refresh your 23 recollection that you had an interview with a prosecutor who 24 was taking notes as he spoke to you?

25 A. I certainly met with a prosecutor, yes.

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 I don't understand the question.

2 Q. My question to you is having looked at that document, 3501C
3 for identification, does that in any way refresh your
4 recollection? And I point, respectfully, to the first line.

5 A. Mm-hmm.

6 Q. Does that say anything about -- or looking at that, does
7 that refresh your recollection as to what those two pages
8 contain?

9 A. When you're asking if it refreshes my recollection. I
10 don't know what these are. I haven't seen these before today.

11 Q. Even if you hadn't -- you've heard the expression in law
12 school that you can show someone the kitchen sink to refresh
13 recollection?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. You know that one, right?

16 A. Sure.

17 Q. Even though you've never seen this before, I ask you to 18 take a look at it -- it's not the kitchen sink, but it's two 19 pages of notes -- I ask you to take a look at that and ask if 20 it refreshes your recollection about a meeting with the 21 prosecutors in which you disclosed or disgorged those facts.

22 A. I don't recognize them. They certainly appear to be notes
23 about a meeting I had. I met with the U.S. Attorney's Office
24 last week.

25 I still don't quite understand the question.

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 Q. You told the prosecutors -- you made specific mention of
2 the fact that there were no restraints, right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And you noted that, and you understood full well why that
5 point was made, or why that question was asked, right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Because a person who is not in custody doesn't have to be
8 Mirandised, right? Is that your understanding?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. So, getting back to the proposition that you got there that 11 day knowing full well that the objective was, if at all
12 possible, to achieve cooperation or have Mr. Mazer cooperate
13 against others, including city officials, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So after Ron Gardella started talking to Mr. Mazer -- by 16 the way, how long did that take? Do you remember him making a
17 speech?

18 A. I remember him saying to him this was very serious. We had 19 a warrant for his arrest. And that this was the opportunity to 20 help himself.

21 Q. Just that?

22 A. Yeah. Just that. And at that point is when he began
23 reading the Miranda rights.

24 Q. And by the way, the part about the speech by Mr. Gardella
25 is not in your rough notes, right?

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 A. No. Not that I remember.

2 Q. Did anyone else make a speech to Mr. Mazer?

3 A. The only people that spoke to Mr. Mazer were Rich Sullivan
4 and Ron Gardella.

5 Q. Well Rich Sullivan spoke to him on the subject of 6 cooperation as well, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And Rich Sullivan spoke to him on the subject of 9 cooperation -- was that before or after Mr. Gardella?

10 A. After.

11 Q. And how long did Mr. Gardella speak to him? Tell me again.

12 A. At which -- how long when?

13 Q. When you sat down at the table.

14 A. It was very quick. He said you're in a lot of trouble.
15 This is a very serious situation. And he said this is the 16 opportunity to help yourself. And at that point --

17 Q. I'm sorry. I didn't mean to --

18 A. And at that point he read his Miranda rights.

19 Q. So this is someone who would be an important cooperator, as 20 you saw it, right?

21 A. Mm-hmm.

22 Q. Yes?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And that was the sum total of what was said to him, Now is 25 the time to cooperate?

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 A. Well, no. They continued to speak with him after they gave
2 Miranda rights.

3 Q. When you say "they," isn't it a fact, sir, that deputy
4 commissioner Sullivan spoke to Mr. Mazer at length?

5 A. That day, yes.

6 Q. And what did Mr. Sullivan have to say to Mr. Mazer?

7 A. Mr. Sullivan was asking him questions, asking about if he
8 knew certain companies, asked about certain people.

9 Q. Did Mr. Sullivan have any paper?

10 A. I don't remember.

11 Q. Well do you remember, sir, as you sit here now,
12 Mr. Sullivan showing something to Mr. Mazer at that table?

13 A. I don't remember that.

14 Q. Well do you remember, sir, that there was created an 15 alleged organizational chart relating to the disbursement of 16 monies at -- in the City Time project? Do you remember that?

17 A. Not specifically.

18 Q. Well do you remember -- you said you were briefed. You
19 were not directly involved but you were briefed in connection
20 with this matter, right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And did you know that the department of investigation
23 and/or the United States Attorney's Office had prepared a
24 chart, an organizational chart of what they alleged was a
25 conspiracy? Do you remember that?

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 A. I have no specific recollection of that.

2 Q. I'm sorry?

3 A. I don't recall that.

4 Q. Do you recall as you sit here now that at that table on 5 December 15, 2010 that Mr. Sullivan, hearing the question I'm 6 putting to you now, that Mr. Sullivan took out a chart and 7 showed it to Mr. Mazer?

8 A. I don't remember that.

9 Q. Do you remember Mr. Sullivan saying that he knew all about 10 what Mr. Mazer allegedly had done? Do you remember that?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Do you remember agent Sullivan saying that his mother was 13 going to be arrested, would be arrested that day? Do you
14 remember that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you remember agent Sullivan -- Mr. Sullivan saying that 17 on that day, that his, Anna, would be arrested? Do you
18 remember that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Do you remember on that day saying -- hearing Mr. Sullivan
21 saying that there would be others arrested as well, right?

22 A. I don't specifically remember that, but.

23 Q. Do you remember Mr. Sullivan saying that his uncle would be
24 arrested?

25 A. I don't specifically remember that.

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 Q. Well do you specifically remember what it was that
2 Mr. Sullivan was telling Mr. Mazer in order to have him
3 cooperate?

4 A. I remember him asking questions about various companies,
5 asking questions about accounts and other business.

6 Q. Do you know what proactive cooperation is?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What do you understand proactive cooperation to be?

9 A. When -- we use it as when somebody cooperates with an
10 investigation to help develop it.

11 Q. And cooperates with an investigation in what respect when 12 it's proactive as opposed to passive?

13 A. In terms of proactive is, for example, wearing a wire,
14 going undercover, making phonecalls, etc.

15 Q. And wearing a wire is an exquisite -- obtaining information
16 from a wire is an exquisite form of proof, isn't it?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And you knew full well on that day, on December 15, 2010
19 that if news of Mr. Mazer's arrest, were he to agree to 20 cooperate, if it had been made public, that would have
21 diminished, if not extinguished, an opportunity to have him
22 wear a wire. You knew that, right?

23 A. Sure.

24 Q. And you have been involved in situations, in arrests where 25 a putative defendant or an actual defendant is told that we

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 won't take you downtown, we won't take you to be arraigned if
2 you'll agree to cooperate, wear a wire, correct?

3 A. That has happened in the past, yes.

4 Q. I'm sorry?

5 A. That has happened in the past, yes.

6 Q. There were no city officials that were going to be arrested
7 that day on December 15, 2010, right?

8 A. I don't recall.

9 Q. Well, now that it's July of 2013 have any city officials
10 been arrested and charged with offenses relating to City Time?

11 A. I'm not sure.

12 Q. You're with the department of investigation how long?

13 A. Six years.

14 Q. And the department of investigation investigates fraud,
15 corruption, deceit, chicanery, whatever, with city officials,
16 right?

17 A. With anybody who works for the city, yes.

18 Q. And it's your testimony, sir, that as you sit here now you
19 don't know whether any city officials were ever prosecuted in 20 connection with City Time?

21 A. Offhand, no.

22 Q. Do you allow that the answer is none?

23 A. I have no recollection. I don't know.

24 Q. Deputy commissioner Sullivan -- by the way was he deputy 25 commissioner at the time as well?

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 A. Yeah, I believe so.

2 Q. Deputy commissioner Sullivan discussed all of these
3 possibilities about Mark Mazer's cooperation on that morning,
4 right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. There came a time when you said Mr. Mazer stopped answering
7 questions, right?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. He was silent, correct?

10 A. Silent. Yes.

11 Q. And he said: If you're going to take me, take me, right?

12 A. He said: If you're here to take me away, take me a way is 13 what I recall.

14 Q. And you told us that his hands, he put his hands in front
15 of him like "handcuff me" as if to say, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What time was that?

18 A. I don't recall what time it was.

19 Q. Well give us an approximate time, if you will.

20 A. It was -- it had to have been some time after 7:00, 7:30,
21 after that.

22 Q. 7:00, 7:30, or after that?

23 A. You're asking me to give an approximate time. I don't 24 remember. I know we left the house at 7:50. It took a little 25 bit before we left the house.

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 Q. Forgive me. I do want to take a moment, and I'm not going
2 to be much longer, but I do want to take a moment in connection
3 with these times.

4 So he's down at the dining room table by somewhat,
5 what, 6:27, 6:28, before 6:30, right?

6 A. Yeah. Right before 6:30.

7 Q. Because you told us he was warned of his Miranda rights at 8 6:30, right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. So he's down there. And it's now 6:30, approximately,
11 right. You remember that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you have your notes to refresh your recollection. You
14 have that Exhibit 3501A in evidence. The questions that are 15 being asked are set forth, right? They're set out, correct?

16 A. In -- my notes.

17 Q. In your notes, and then again more explicitly in your memo,
18 the memo that's 3501A, right?

19 A. Yes. My notes are really -- are statements that he was 20 making. Not necessarily the questions.

21 Q. Not the question?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. You made no record of the questions that were being asked,
24 just the statements that were given?

25 A. In the memo I may have put some of the questions that were

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 asked, yes.

2 Q. So how many questions -- how many answers do you have in
3 3501A?

4 A. Offhand.

5 Q. It's right in front of you.

6 A. Would you like me to read it?

7 Q. Sure. It's in evidence.

8 First, looking at A. We're first looking at the 9 report that you made on the two days following December 15.

10 A. The A -- you're talking about the actual memo?

11 Q. I'm sorry.

12 A. The memo you're asking me about?

13 Q. Yes. The memo.

14 You have bullets here, right?

15 A. There are about ten bullets.

16 Q. There are ten bullets and each bullet contains usually one
17 sentence, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. One or two with two sentences but generally one sentence,
20 right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. How long did it take is what I'd like know. How long did
23 this take?

24 A. When you say how long did what take?

25 Q. How long did it take for these questions or answers. You

D7m9mazh

Gigante - cross

1 don't have the questions here, but answers. How long did it
2 take for that to occur?

3 A. We spoke to him probably for about 40 minutes or so, 45
4 minutes.

5 Q. So you were at that table for 40 or 45 minutes? Is that
6 your testimony?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. What were you doing until 7:50, sir?

9 A. (No response).

10 Q. 7:50?

11 A. 7:50?

12 Q. Yes.

13 A. Was when everybody was outside of the residence.

14 Q. That's when everyone left, right?

15 A. That's when everyone was outside the residence, yes. At 16 some point -- I'm sorry. What was your question?

17 Q. What time was it, based often the 7:50, if you could give 18 us your best guess -- I withdraw guess. I don't mean guess.
19 Give us your best estimate of how long Mr. Mazer had been at 20 that table before he says take me away.

21 A. Between 40, 45 minutes, I believe.

22 Q. Between 40 and 45 minutes?

23 A. I believe so. We were speaking for that length of time,
24 yes.

25 Q. And for that length of time -- withdrawn.

1 MR. SHARGEL: I have no further questions.

2 THE COURT: Any further questions of this witness,
3 Mr. Master?

4 MR. MASTER: No redirect, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. You may step down.
6 (Witness excused)

7 THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Master, does the government wish to 9 call any further witnesses?

10 MR. MASTER: No, your Honor, subject to potential
11 rebuttal witnesses.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Shargel, would you like to call any 13 witnesses?

14 MR. SHARGEL: Yes. But with the Court's permission,
15 Mr. Mazer would like to use the facilities if that's all right.

16 THE COURT: We'll take a five-minute break.
17 (Recess)

18 MR. SHARGEL: May I proceed, your Honor?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 MR. SHARGEL: At this time the defense calls
21 Mr. Mazer.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Mazer would you take the stand.

23 MARK MAZER,

24 called as a witness by the Defendant,

25 having been duly sworn, testified as follows:

1 THE COURT: You can inquire Mr. Shargel.

3 BY MR. SHARGEL:

4 Q. Mr. Mazer, where were you born?

5 A. I was born in Ukraine.

6 Q. And are you a naturalized American citizen?

7 A. Yes, I am.

8 Q. How long are you in this country?

9 A. Thirty-something years.

10 Q. Give us a little bit about your educational background.

11 A. I have a master's degree in management information systems,
12 and I have bachelor's degree in computer science.

13 Q. Let me direct your attention to the morning of December 15,
14 2010. Now just as a preliminary matter you submitted an 15 affidavit in connection with this case?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. And you knew that the affidavit was in connection with this 18 motion to suppress. You knew that, correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. I'm going to show you what I'll mark --

21 MR. SHARGEL: Actually it's in the record as a
22 document submitted on Mr. Mazer's behalf, your Honor. For 23 purposes of the hearing I'll mark it as Defense Exhibit D for 24 identification.

25 Q. Show you what's been marked as Defense Exhibit D for

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 identification. I ask if you recognize it.

2 A. Yes, I do.

3 Q. What do you recognize it to be?

4 A. It's affidavit.

5 MR. SHARGEL: I offer it.

6 MR. MASTER: No objection.

7 THE COURT: It will be admitted into evidence as 8 Defense Exhibit D.

9 (Defendant's Exhibit D received in evidence)

10 MR. SHARGEL: The only reason I'm offering it, your 11 Honor, is -- I'll ask this question of the witness.

12 Q. Do you see the date on the very first line that says you
13 were arrested on December 17, 2010?

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. Was that anything more than a typographical error?

16 A. No, it was not.

17 Q. It was an error that was not committed by you, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 MR. SHARGEL: May I continue, your Honor?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 Q. I'm directing your attention to the morning of December 15,
22 2010. And I'm going to ask you where you were -- I'm going to 23 pick a time, 6:00 early in the morning. Where were you?

24 A. I was sleeping in my bedroom in my house at 59 Harrow Lane,
25 Manhasset.

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 Q. Who else was in the house that night?

2 A. It was my wife, who was sleeping with me, and three of my
3 children.

4 Q. That's your primary residence at the time, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And tell us the ages of your children, if you could do the 7 math, tell us how old they were in December of '10.

8 A. My daughter was 21. My son was 18. And my youngest son
9 was 10.

10 Q. And were they sleeping or awake at that hour?

11 A. They were asleep. We all were asleep.

12 Q. Does there come a time when you hear, just to focus your 13 attention, does there come a time when you hear a knock at the 14 door or a bell that's rung?

15 A. I didn't hear the knock. I heard the intercom bell on the 16 door which woke me up around 6:15.

17 Q. Tell us what the intercom system, what security system you 18 have.

19 A. Intercom is not a security system. It's basically
20 telephone. When you pick up the phone off the wall the video 21 camera activates and able to see who was standing outside on 22 the other side of the door.

23 Q. And on that December morning could you tell us who you saw
24 on the outside?

25 A. At 6:15 when I was awoken by the bell I got up, I put my

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 pajama pants and a T-shirt and I take off the intercom and I
2 saw several officers standing outside with a badge around their
3 neck that's clearly displayed. And I ask can I help you. And 4 they said Mr. Mazer we need to speak with you. Please open the 5 door.

6 Q. And what did you do next?

7 A. I went downstairs and I opened the door.

8 Q. When you went downstairs and opened the door what were you
9 wearing?

10 A. I was wearing my pajama pants and a T-shirt.

11 Q. And when you opened the door how many people entered?

12 A. Many.

13 Q. Well --

14 A. There were four people walking -- three people that I saw.
15 Many people that were behind them. I didn't count exactly the 16 number but there were plenty.

17 Q. Were they wearing any type of particular garb that you
18 noticed?

19 A. They were wearing some blue jackets with some white
20 signatures on them and I saw the badges around their necks and 21 the belts and I saw the guns displayed in the holsters and to 22 me it was clearly they were law enforcement officers.

23 Q. When you say displayed, were there any guns out of the 24 holsters?

25 A. No. But they were clearly visible.

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 Q. And what happened next?

2 A. Deputy commissioner Sullivan, if that's the name, he said
3 that he would like to talk to me and he would like to discuss
4 with me serious matters.

5 Q. And before deputy commissioner Sullivan said that, did
6 agents go throughout the house to secure the house?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did any agents go to the second floor?

9 A. No.

10 Q. And did you --

11 A. They went to the second floor. When they told me they 12 would like to speak to me, I told them I need get dressed and 13 wash my face. As I was walking upstairs agents were pouring
14 into the house and spreading along the first floor.

15 Q. When you went upstairs, who accompanied you?

16 A. Gentleman that was standing here before me, before me,
17 Mr. Gigante.

18 Q. Mr. Gigante?

19 A. Yes. I asked him to go upstairs and change, go to the 20 bathroom and wash my face. I was told I can do that as long as 21 he's accompanying me and I cannot do it by myself. He has to 22 come with me.

23 As I went upstairs to the bathroom there is a small
24 room where I have a toilet and I wanted to use the toilet and I
25 wanted to close the door. And Mr. Gigante told me that I

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 cannot close the door and I have to do whatever I have to do in
2 front of him. So he was standing in the doorway and observing
3 me going to the bathroom.

4 And after that I went in to the sink. I washed my 5 hands. I brushed my teeth. I washed my face. And I comb my 6 hair. After that I use my towel, wipe my face and everything
7 else. And I went to the dressing area and I selected the 8 clothes that I will be wearing. And I put my pants, I put the 9 shirt, and I buttoned all the buttons and zip all the zippers,
10 and I went downstairs. It took approximately ten minutes, give 11 or take.

12 Q. So what's your best recollection as you sit here now of how 13 long, what time it was when you arrived at that table?

14 A. 6:32, 6:33. As soon as I arrived I asked if anybody would
15 like coffee because I wanted to have coffee. I cannot function
16 without drinking coffee in the morning.

17 Q. So what happened next?

18 A. Before I even sit down at the table I asked for permission
19 to get coffee. So they gave me permission to get coffee and 20 they told me nobody wanted any coffee at all. So I went to get 21 the coffee myself. Mr. Gigante was following me to the 22 kitchen. I went to the kitchen and I --

23 MR. SHARGEL: Could you slow down a little bit. Just,
24 please. Slow down a bit.

25 Q. You had offered the other agents coffee; is that right?

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And you're permitted, as Mr. Gigante testified, you're
3 permitted to make yourself a cup of coffee?

4 A. Yes so long as he was standing next to me.

5 Q. How long did that process take to make the cup of coffee?

6 A. Seven minutes.

7 Q. And how do you recall that?

8 A. When we went into the kitchen, when I came from upstairs
9 downstairs and I didn't sit down at the table I asked for the 10 coffee. They told me it's okay. I went to the kitchen. He 11 followed me. I have two type of equipment in the kitchen. And 12 I have automated machine and I have electrical coffee --
13 electrical pot. I took the pot off the electrical base and I
14 poured the water in. And it's a minute per cup. So I poured
15 the full bucket. And I put it up. And I turned it on. And it
16 takes six minutes, give or take, a little bit more, six minutes
17 to boil the water. While the water was boiling I was getting 18 the cup, putting the instant coffee in, sugar, and I was 19 waiting for the water to finish boiling.

20 Once it boiled I poured the cup in -- the water into 21 the cup and I twisted the spoon. At that time I offered the 22 officers coffee again. Maybe they changed their mind. And 23 Mr. Gigante asked me, you know, what is this next to the coffee
24 pot. And I said to him it's a coffee machine. But I didn't
25 want to use at that time. And I said to him it's -- you know

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 you press the button you get the coffee. But it wasn't used
2 because we didn't have coffee beans at that time. We had
3 instant coffee.

4 Q. So coffee, however you got it, you got the coffee and what
5 do you do next?

6 A. I took the cup of coffee with me to the table.

7 Approximately 6:37, 6:40 I sit down, I'm comfortable. And
8 Mr. Sullivan began his speech -- not the speech but you know
9 began his -- began speaking, that's what would be correct.

10 Mr. Sullivan began speaking. He explained to me --

11 Q. Let me ask you this. Did you know Mr. Sullivan before that 12 day?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Now tell us as best you can recall, please tell the Court
15 as best you can recall what the conversation was between you
16 and Mr. Sullivan. Who said what to whom?

17 A. As I was sitting at the table there were several officers
18 sitting around the table. Mr. Sullivan was on my left. And a
19 couple others were sitting around. And he began talking and he 20 try -- you know he presented to me the case that this is a
21 serious matter. New York City department of investigation
22 conducting extensive investigation of City Time project and 23 they would like to get my cooperation to help them to develop 24 the case against the city officials and as well as he was 25 continually telling me the steps that they were going through,

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 or they went through. They interview all the consultants that
2 were prior on the project, after the project, you know, before
3 the project -- I'm sorry.

4 That they were interviewing consultants on the project
5 that were -- left the project and different kind of consultants
6 that were working currently on the project. At the same time
7 he told me they interview city officials, OPA officials
8 specifically. And they interview a lot of people he started
9 mentioning, you know, that they need my assistance. I was 10 sitting there listening. I wasn't saying a word. He was going 11 through -- you know he pulled out the chart.

12 Q. Tell us about that.

13 A. He, he --

14 Q. Excuse me. Let me ask the question. We're not in a rush.
15 So just be calm. At what point does he pull out the chart?

16 A. Probably fifteen minutes into conversation, into his 17 presentation to me.

18 He was presenting me the case. He was presenting me
19 the investigation that they -- he outlined the investigation
20 they went through and they needed my assistance to take it to 21 the next level. And the -- I was listening and I wasn't 22 responding to anything. And he pulled out the chart in 23 questioning which presented the schematic, you know, SIC New 24 York City, SIC TechnoDyne, SGM, corporations and the whole flow
25 of information as they developed. And he asked me to validate

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 if this is true or not. I never see the chart before in my
2 life, so.

3 Q. Did you ever see it again?

4 A. Yes. I saw it the following day when the -- on December 16
5 when I came home after the arrest, the following morning, and
6 the 16th, 17th, to the best of my recollection. It's
7 available on the internet with the U.S. Attorney's Office
8 presentation when they were doing it, basically displaying how 9 the money were spent and how the city was defrauded and what
10 role I play in this alleged conspiracy.

11 Q. How long was it that you were at that table?

12 A. (No response).

13 Q. How long -- how much time was spent at that table?

14 A. From the time I arrived?

15 Q. Yes.

16 A. Hour and ten minutes.

17 Q. When Mr. Sullivan was making his, as you say, speech to you
18 about cooperation, was he asking any questions at that point?

19 A. No. He was presenting his proposals and he was offering me
20 to cooperate. And they make it clear that if I cooperate with 21 them they will not hurt my family. They will not arrest my 22 wife. They will not arrest my mother. They will not arrest my 23 uncle. And I was listening.

24 Q. And when Mr. Gardella spoke to you, how long approximately 25 was that conversation?

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 Not conversation but as he called it when he was here,
2 the crossroads speech?

3 A. Mr. Sullivan conversation, proposal, description took
4 probably, give or take, 30 minutes. After which point
5 Mr. Gardella give what he called, I remember, last time he was 6 here that it was a crossroads speech. It was a short and 7 basically he said to me we already know everything we need to 8 know. We just need you to confirm it and give us city
9 officials. And his speech went on another five, seven minutes.

10 Q. So how long altogether were you at that table?

11 A. I arrived at the table 6:40. And we left the house very 12 quickly at 7:50.

13 Q. Now you recall -- you were sitting here when Mr. Gigante
14 was saying that the reason that -- one reason why they didn't 15 leave until 7:50 was because arrangements had to be made for 16 the children, right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. At that time was your 21-year-old daughter fully capable of 19 taking care of the -- of Michael who was ten?

20 A. Alex.

21 Q. Alex who was ten?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And you had Michael who was at the time 18?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And he was fully self-sufficient?

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 A. Yes, he was.

2 Q. Both your daughter and your son Michael had taken care of
3 Alex many times in the past? Is that a fair statement?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. Did anyone -- did either you or your wife express to the 6 agents that you couldn't leave the house until arrangements had 7 been made for the children, quote unquote?

8 A. No, we did not.

9 Q. Did there come a time when you said to the -- to 10 Mr. Gardella and Mr. Gigante, Well take me away?

11 A. It was the end. It was anywhere around 7:47, 7:45, 47, 12 something like that.

13 Q. This conversation -- withdraw conversation. But this 14 dialogue -- I'm going to withdraw that one too. Too similar to 15 conversation.

16 The bottomline is you're being pitched for cooperation
17 the entire time you're at the table; is that correct?

18 A. That's correct. Extensively.

19 Q. Sir, you understand that you're under oath, right?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. You understand the United States Sentencing Guidelines?
22 They've been explained to you, right?

23 A. Yes, I do.

24 Q. Do you -- and in that context let me put this question to 25 you. Were you ever given Miranda warnings at 6:30 in the

D7m9mazh

Mazer - direct

1 morning?

2 A. No, I was not. I was not even downstairs at 6:30.

3 Q. And were you given Miranda warnings at any time that
4 morning?

5 A. No, I was not.

6 MR. SHARGEL: I have no further questions.

7 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

8 MR. MASTER: Yes, your Honor.

10 BY MR. MASTER:

11 Q. Now, Mr. Mazer you recognize me, don't you?

12 A. Yes, I do.

13 Q. I'm one of the prosecutors on this case. You're familiar
14 with that, correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And on September 30 of this year you are going to be going
17 to trial, correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You're going to be sitting at that table, correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And I and other members of the government's team will be 22 sitting at that table, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Now you don't want to be convicted at that trial, do you?

25 A. I hope not.

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 Q. Right. You don't want to be convicted, do you?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. And you don't want the statements that you made to 4 investigators the morning of your arrest admitted at that
5 trial, do you?

6 A. No.

7 Q. That's because the statements are so devastating to your
8 defense; isn't that right?

9 MR. SHARGEL: Object to the form of the question.

10 THE COURT: Sustained as to the form.

11 Q. Well, the statements that you made to officers when you
12 were arrested, that's not consistent with your defense, is it?

13 MR. SHARGEL: Objection.

14 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the objection. Going
15 too far.

16 Q. Well, fair to say that you lied a number of times to agents
17 when you were arrested?

18 MR. SHARGEL: Judge, I'm going to object to this.
19 It's not the substance. This is a claim -- this is a 20 contention that there were no Miranda warnings given. So to 21 cross-examine on the actual questions I think is beyond the 22 scope. I think that courts have consistently held that it's 23 not a question of the answers that were given, the statements
24 that were made. It's a question --

25 THE COURT: I'm going to overrule the objection and

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 primarily because I don't remember this -- this witness has not
2 said he made any statements so it's still an issue of fact as
3 to whether he made any statement -- he claims any statements
4 that should be suppressed because he wasn't given Miranda
5 warnings. But I heard his testimony about the questions and
6 speeches. But he never said he made any statement. So I think
7 that you opened the door as to what he was asked and what the 8 speeches were. I think it's appropriate for the government to 9 ask him what, in fact, happened between him and the witness --
10 and the agents.

11 You can continue.

12 BY MR. MASTER:

13 Q. You made a number of statements in response to questions
14 that the agents asked you, didn't you?

15 A. After Mr. Sullivan finished his presentation to me, and 16 Mr. -- I don't remember the name -- the first person that was 17 interviewed here, give me what are called crossroads speech,
18 then the questions began around 7:10, 7:15. And to the best of 19 my recollection I answered no to each and every question.

20 Q. So you do remember asking questions and giving responses?

21 MR. SHARGEL: I object to the form. He wasn't asking
22 questions.

23 THE COURT: Why don't you restate the question.

24 BY MR. MASTER:

25 Q. You remember being asked questions and answering no to

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 those questions?

2 A. Yes, to the best of my recollection, to all the questions.

3 Q. Well do you remember being asked about companies owned by 4 your mother?

5 A. I don't remember exact questions. The only thing I was 6 answering at that time was no to all the questions. To the 7 best of my recollection. I don't remember specific questions
8 at this point.

9 Q. Well this is a specific question, sir. Do you remember
10 being asked about questions owned -- about companies owned by 11 your mother? Yes or no.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And do you remember stating that you did not know about 14 your mother's businesses?

15 A. The question was do I know my mother. The answer was no.
16 Do you want -- the second question was do you know your 17 mother's businesses. The answer was no. It was no to all the 18 questions that were asked of me at that time.

19 Q. Do you remember being asked whether you received any money
20 from your mother's businesses?

21 A. I don't remember.

22 Q. You don't remember being asked that?

23 Do you remember saying in response that your mother's 24 money is hers and you have nothing to do with it?

25 A. I don't remember at the moment specific questions and

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 answers. I remember answering no to all the questions.

2 Q. You don't remember those questions?

3 A. Not at the moment.

4 Q. Well, if you -- you said you answered no to the question
5 about your mother's businesses not knowing your mother's 6 businesses. Do you remember just saying that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And that's -- that answer, the one that you just admitted
9 giving, that statement is a lie; isn't that right?

10 MR. SHARGEL: Judge, I object to that. I object to 11 this cross-examination on those statements.

12 THE COURT: No. Overruled. I think on the issue, 13 particularly the issue before me is the credibility of 14 witnesses who testified about what occurred. I think this goes
15 directly to this witness's credibility.

16 You can answer.

17 THE WITNESS: I answered no to all the questions -- to 18 that question and the reason I answered no because I was 19 overwhelmed at that time after 15 minutes of speeches and 20 conversations.

21 Q. We'll get to the timing in a minute, Mr. Mazer. That's not
22 the question that I asked.

23 I asked whether that statement, as you sit here today,
24 you know that that statement is a lie; isn't that right?

25 A. Yes.

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 Q. That's because you set up those businesses in your mother's
2 name, right?

3 MR. SHARGEL: Judge, I must object to this. He's 4 using this as discovery. This is beyond the scope of the 5 hearing, most respectfully.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Shargel, I don't want to cut you off
7 but I'm going to rule in your favor, so if you want to keep 8 talking --

9 MR. SHARGEL: I better stop talking.

10 THE COURT: Sustained as to that question.

11 MR. MASTER: All right.

12 Q. Well, you were also asked who Dimitry Aronshtein was?

13 MR. MASTER: Your Honor, just for a moment, if I can
14 understand the contours of your Honor's ruling. I'm permitted
15 to inquire as to whether he recalls making certain statements
16 and then whether those statements were lies?

17 THE COURT: You can ask him what he was asked. And 18 you can ask him what he said. And you can ask him whether what 19 he responded was true or false.

20 MR. MASTER: Okay.

21 Q. You were asked, you remember being asked who Dimitry
22 Aronshtein was?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And do you remember saying no to that question?

25 A. Yes.

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 Q. And that statement also was a lie; isn't that right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And you remember being asked whether you received any money
4 from your mother's companies?

5 A. I don't remember exactly number of questions that were
6 asked, specific questions. I don't remember.

7 I remember clearly was asking if I knew who my mother
8 was. And I was asked if I knew who my uncle was. And I was 9 asked if I knew who my wife's cousin was. And the answer to 10 all these questions were no.

11 Q. So, okay. Just to cut to the chase. You said you didn't
12 know -- your cousin is Anna Makovetskaya, right?

13 A. My wife's cousin.

14 Q. You said you didn't know who she was?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. That was also a lie?

17 A. As you put it.

18 Q. I --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. It's a yes-or-no question.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you were also asked if you knew Victor Nantanzon. Do
23 you remember that?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Well in preparation for your testimony here today did you

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 have the opportunity to review this memorandum that was
2 prepared by inspector general Gigante?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And he certainly wrote down that you were asked if you knew
5 Victor Nantanzon. Do you see that in the memo?

6 A. I don't have anything in front of me.

7 Q. Well it should be in front of you.

8 MR. MASTER: May I approach, your Honor?

9 THE COURT: Yes.

10 Q. It's marked as 3501A, second page.

11 A. What's the question?

12 Q. Do you remember, having reviewed that, do you remember
13 being asked if you knew Victor Nantanzon?

14 A. I remember -- reviewed this. The answer is yes to the 15 question that I saw these statements in preparation for this 16 hearing. I don't remember the question that was asked me at 17 the time of the arrest.

18 Q. You don't remember being asked anything about Victor
19 Nantanzon?

20 A. No.

21 Q. You don't remember being asked anything about Prime View?

22 A. To the best of my recollection right now the answer is no.

23 Q. You don't remember being asked anything about D.A.
24 Solutions?

25 A. I remember being asked about D.A. Solutions. It was on the

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 chart that was presented to me.

2 Q. And do you remember what you said when you were asked about
3 D.A. Solutions?

4 A. No.

5 Q. You said you did not know about D.A. Solutions?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. And that was a lie?

8 A. That was the answer I gave.

9 Q. Right. But that was a lie?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Now let's get back to the events of that morning.

12 You, sir, you testified just now on direct examination
13 about a sequence of events. Do you remember that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And that testimony, as your counsel elicited, was under 16 oath, correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And the oath was made under penalties of perjury. Do you 19 understand that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Do you understand you could be prosecuted separately for 22 perjury for making -- for intentionally lying here?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Do you remember that?

25 Now you also have Defense Exhibit D. Do you have that

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 in front of you? That's your affidavit.

2 A. No, I don't.

3 Q. I'm going to show you -- government had marked as
4 Government Exhibit 3, but we're marking it also as Defense
5 Exhibit D.

6 Now, that's the affidavit that you submitted in order
7 to get this hearing today, correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And it states at the beginning, the first page it says,
10 "Mark Mazer being duly sworn."

11 Do you remember reading that before you signed it?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And if you turn to the last page, just to make clear,
14 that's page three. There's a signature on the back. Whose 15 signature is that?

16 A. Mine.

17 Q. You signed it and you swore before you signed it. And in 18 connection with signing it, you swore that what was in here was 19 true?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Right? Nothing was left out, right?

22 A. The affidavit was prepared by my lawyers.

23 Q. Right. But before you signed it, setting aside the issue
24 of this December 15 versus December 17 typographical error,
25 before you signed it, you looked it over, right?

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. And you wanted to make sure that what you said in this
3 affidavit was accurate to the best of your recollection at that 4 time?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. And that was dated May 13, 2013? Do you see that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Just about two months ago?

9 A. (No response).

10 Q. Right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Sir, just two months ago you didn't testify -- you didn't 13 say in this affidavit that you went and put on clothes for ten
14 minutes; isn't that right?

15 A. This is a description that was put together based on the 16 interview that my lawyers conducted with me.

17 Q. That's not my question, sir. That's not my question.
18 Listen to my question.

19 Just two months ago -- just turn to paragraph four.
20 Two months ago you said you went upstairs, you used the toilet,
21 you washed your hands and face, and then you said when I was 22 done the officer followed me downstairs.

23 Do you remember that? Do you see that right there?

24 A. Which part?

25 Q. Paragraph 4.

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. You swore that -- at the time you swore that that was true,
3 right?

4 A. That's correct. We came downstairs.

5 Q. You don't have clothes in the bathroom, do you?

6 A. No. I have in clothes as you walked into the bathroom,
7 outside the bathroom.

8 Q. When you were done using the bathroom, you went right back
9 downstairs; isn't that right?

10 A. No. Mr. Gigante testified here in front of us today that I
11 washed my face. And before that I brushed my teeth. And 12 before that I -- after that I combed myself, and that's what we 13 did. That's what I said. And that's what he said. And that's 14 what happened.

15 Q. And then you went right back downstairs?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. And when you were back downstairs you went over to the 18 dining room table, right?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. And, sir, you testified about some coffee system that you
21 possess. You do have a push button coffee machine, right?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. And all you have to do is push a button and coffee comes 24 right out?

25 A. When it's working, that's correct.

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 Q. And so after you were done making coffee, you sat down at 2 the table?

3 A. That's correct. Not from the push button machine but 4 that's correct.

5 Q. And as you just testified, you had time to compose
6 yourself, right?

7 A. Clarify your question. What does it mean compose yourself.

8 Q. Well, you were able to wash your face and use the bathroom,
9 right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. You had -- you were allowed to make a cup of coffee, right?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. And you were allowed to sit down with -- you weren't
14 wearing handcuffs, right?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. And you had time to compose your thoughts and lie to those 17 officers when they asked you questions?

18 A. From the time the officers followed me upstairs and I went 19 to the bathroom and I was not able to close the door, it was 20 clear to me that I was in custody. And I was not able to 21 free -- I was not able to leave the house and free to do the 22 things I need to do because Mr. Gigante was standing next to 23 me.

24 Q. That's not the question that I asked, sir.

25 You had time to sit down at the dining table with your

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 cup of coffee, start drinking that coffee before you were ever
2 asked any questions, right?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And you had time in your mind to process what they were
5 asking you. And as a result of that process, at least some of 6 the time, you produced lies?

7 A. As I stated before, the questions were not asked initially.
8 It was Mr. Sullivan conversation for 30-something minutes and 9 then crossroads speech by another officer and then the 10 questioning began.

11 Q. That wasn't my question, sir. I'll ask one more time.

12 You had time to process the questions in your mind and 13 at least some of the time, the answers to those questions, you
14 had time to process them, and you made the conscious decision
15 to lie, correct?

16 A. I answered no.

17 Q. Again, sir, do you not understand my questions?

18 I'm trying to be clear.

19 A. Can you try again, please.

20 Q. You had time when you were sitting down there with your cup
21 of coffee to hear their questions -- you're not hard of 22 hearing, correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. You had time to understand their questions, correct?

25 A. Yes.

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 Q. You had time to think about how to respond to those
2 questions?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And on at least some occasions you had time to decide how 5 to answer and to decide to answer with lies, correct?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Well --

8 A. At the time of the questioning I was overwhelmed and I
9 couldn't remember hearing a lot of these questions and the 10 answer was no to all the questions.

11 Q. Sir, you just testified less than a minute ago that you had 12 time to hear the questions and you had time to listen to the 13 questions and you had time to understand the questions.

14 Do you remember just testifying about that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you said, you just said yes to each of those questions.
17 Do you remember just saying that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And do you remember just saying a few minutes before that,
20 that your answers to several of those questions were no and 21 those questions were knowingly false, the answers were 22 knowingly false? You knew that you were lying to the agents
23 who were right there?

24 A. I was overwhelmed when the answer was no.

25 Q. You were knowingly lying to the agents when the answer was

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 no?

2 A. (No response).

3 Q. Correct?

4 A. As I stated before, after 50 minutes of conversation I was 5 overwhelmed and the answer was no to all those questions.

6 MR. MASTER: Your Honor, I'll move on.

7 Q. Sir, this isn't the first time -- well, you had to lie
8 repeatedly in order to commit the offenses with which you're 9 charged; isn't that right?

10 MR. SHARGEL: I object to that.

11 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain.

12 MR. MASTER: Your Honor, I have -- I'd like to show
13 the witness what's been marked for identification as Government
14 Exhibit 5.

15 I'd like to show the defendant something that he swore
16 to under oath falsely. That's within the core --

17 MR. SHARGEL: I object to the speech also.

18 THE COURT: I sustain the objection to the last
19 question.

20 Go on to the next question and maybe the next question
21 won't be objected to and I won't sustain the next question.

22 If you want to show him a document, you can show him a
23 document. But simply asking him whether he had to repeatedly 24 lie when he committed this offense goes into other issues that 25 don't have anything to do with his credibility because that

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 starts with the assumption that somehow he's going to -- well I
2 guess you expect him to break down and confess or something. I
3 don't know what you expect him to say.

4 I sustain the objection to the last question. If you
5 want to proceed in another manner and you have another
6 question, that's the nature of my --

7 MR. MASTER: Yes, your Honor.

8 Q. Are you familiar with something called VENDEX?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And you're familiar with VENDEX because -- because you
11 actually filled out a VENDEX questionnaire. Do you remember 12 that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. You were a contractor for the city of New York, right?

15 MR. SHARGEL: Judge I'm going to object to this and 16 I'd like to just tell you why.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. SHARGEL: Judge, I objected consistently from the 19 beginning to going into the substance of this. Now the 20 prosecutor is going into essentially a discovery mission to try
21 to find out what Mr. Mazer's position is on this. The Supreme 22 Court has made it clear that a defendant who is trying to
23 protect his Fourth Amendment rights can't surrender his Fifth
24 Amendment rights. I think that all the lawyers in the 25 courtroom agree that that's the law.

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 So what Mr. Master is doing is taking this opportunity
2 to go further and ask about other aspects of the case. And if
3 that's the strategy of the prosecutor, a strategy that I've
4 never seen before, then I'm going to instruct the witness, I'm
5 going to instruct my client to assert his Fifth Amendment
6 privilege. We can't have a situation where they're planning to
7 introduce at trial that Mr. Mazer admitted at a Fourth
8 Amendment hearing that he overwhelmed, as he's testified, that
9 he lied to the agents. That's clearly not admissible.

10 It's clearly improper for them to now go further and 11 attempt to ask questions about other aspects of the case.
12 There's a count here that contains allegations about submitting
13 false VENDEX reports. So he's supposed to be questioned about 14 that? I don't think the law supports that.

15 I don't think that what he's testified to thus far is 16 admissible at his trial. But beyond admissibility, on that 17 basic question, is the proposition that they're now taking an 18 opportunity to go on some discovery mission. And that's simply 19 wrong. And if that's what he's doing, then I'm going instruct 20 my client to assert his Fifth Amendment privilege.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Master.

22 MR. MASTER: Your Honor, this is not out of the realm
23 of what prosecution -- the prosecutors do. This happens all 24 the time in court. Mr. Mazer has placed his credibility at 25 issue by taking the stand and asking the Court to accept his

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 version of events as true.

2 Absolutely, as Mr. Shargel indicates, the law is that
3 generally statements made during pretrial hearings are not
4 admissible in the government's case in chief. And that is the 5 protection that's available to Mr. Mazer. I'm sure Mr. Shargel
6 is quite familiar with that.

7 How is a Court to assess the credibility of a
8 defendant if he can't be cross-examined like any other witness
9 as to his credibility which is at issue?

10 He's not shielded from questioning as to his 11 credibility. That can't be the rule. There are protections
12 procedurally for these statements not to be admitted in the 13 government's case in chief at trial and I can represent to the 14 Court that that's not what the government intends to do. We're 15 here as part of a truth-seeking function and we're here to 16 determine whether this defendant is telling the truth right now
17 on the stand.

18 So, your Honor, I think it's quite clear that the 19 government is permitted to inquire as to matters that are 20 relevant to his credibility.

21 I respect the Court's ruling as to the scope of 22 cross-examination. But we're prepared to inquire as to another
23 sworn writing in which the defendant did not -- under oath in 24 which the defendant made false statements.

25 MR. SHARGEL: It's interesting that the government

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 stands before you and tells you what the law is and what
2 happens in these cases without citing a single case or support
3 for this proposition. What are we supposed to do with the 4 fruits or leads. They're going to start getting into the 5 specific allegations of the indictment beyond anything that 6 we've talked about at the hearing, to get into the VENDEX, get
7 into other aspects of this and then take advantage of fruits
8 and leads.

9 I believe that this is clearly unconstitutional and
10 I'm going to instruct my client to assert his Fifth Amendment
11 privilege if this continues.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Master, on the very limited issue of 13 cross-examination I will allow you to ask this witness about 14 any prior statement that this witness has made in which this
15 witness has on some prior occasion admitted that it was false
16 except I will not allow you, at this hearing, to simply ask
17 questions of this witness which are simply the elements of the 18 allegations of the government against this witness and which 19 the government has the burden to prove that at trial.

20 Just simply ask the witness whether any of the 21 allegations that the government has made against the defendant
22 are true or false. That's not the purpose of this hearing.
23 Its probative value is far outweighed by its potential
24 prejudice to the defendant. And I think it's beyond the 25 scope -- limited appropriate cross-examination with regard to

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 his credibility.

2 To the extent that you have some statements that he
3 has made and indicated in the past that those statements were 4 false, then those statements are not simply the allegations of 5 the government that involve the charges in this case. You can
6 pursue those. But to the extent that they're simply the 7 allegations of the government that they have an independent
8 obligation to prove, that's not the appropriate -- this isn't 9 the appropriate place, time, or purpose for which the 10 government should put to him the government's allegations so he 11 can either deny or admit that what the government claims is 12 true in their criminal indictment is, in fact, true.

13 So I guess the best guidance I can give you is that 14 you should stay away from asking him about the statements or 15 activities that involve the allegations in this indictment that 16 the government must prove.

17 MR. MASTER: Just a moment, your Honor.

18 (Pause)

19 Q. On page three of this affidavit, sir, do you remember
20 reading and affirming that your attorney has described the 21 Miranda warnings?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. You're very familiar with the Miranda warnings, aren't you?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. You were familiar even before your attorney explained them

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 to you; isn't that right?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Well you've watched TV shows where Miranda rights were read
4 to people; isn't that right?

5 A. Law & Order, yes, once in a while.

6 Q. And you've seen the Miranda rights given on that show;
7 isn't that right?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Now, do you remember shoplifting some caviar from a Costco?

10 A. Can you repeat the question.

11 Q. Do you remember shoplifting some caviar from a Costco?

12 A. Yes.

13 MR. SHARGEL: You know, I'm going to move to strike
14 and I'll tell you why, Judge. What we're hearing is evidence
15 that might be admissible under 608(b). But shoplifting is not 16 a crime of false statement or declaration. I submit that under 17 608(b) it's inadmissible, plainly inadmissible.

18 THE COURT: Little bit of a late objection.

19 MR. SHARGEL: There is no jury here. But that's my 20 objection.

21 By the way, all we have is the question. I know there
22 was a --

23 THE COURT: Well there was a long wait for you to 24 object. But it didn't happen until after he gave the answer.

25 Mr. Master, where do you intend to go with shoplifting

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 caviar?

2 MR. MASTER: First of all 608(b) doesn't have to do
3 with false declarations. It has to do with specific instances
4 of a defendant's conduct to attack or support the witness's
5 character for truthfulness.

6 THE COURT: Just a second. Relax.

7 Do you genuinely think that I will give significant
8 weight to an assessment of his credibility as a witness in this
9 hearing because he shoplifted a can of caviar?

10 MR. MASTER: Well, there is one other point that I
11 intended to make. And that is: Sir, do you remember when you
12 were arrested for that, where were you working?

13 MR. SHARGEL: Objection.

14 THE COURT: Again, I don't -- I can't foresee the 15 relevance. You have to give me the relevant question.

16 Q. Well do you remember when you were arrested saying that you
17 were a computer programmer with MS Technology in Oceanside.

18 MR. SHARGEL: I object to this.

19 THE COURT: And the relevance of this question is.

20 MR. MASTER: That was a lie.

21 Q. That was a lie, wasn't it?

22 MR. SHARGEL: I object. I don't know what the good
23 faith basis for this is. This is so far afield. I object.
24 And I don't see the relevance. I don't see how this is 25 relevant to credibility. Unless we have a mini-trial.

D7m9mazh

Mazer - cross

1 THE COURT: You know, I think it's a bit far afield at 2 this point, Mr. Master. So I'm going to sustain the objection.

3 MR. MASTER: Yes, your Honor.

4 Just a moment.

5 (Pause)

6 MR. MASTER: Nothing further, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Any further questions, Mr. Shargel?

9 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And when you went down to that table and sat at that table,

19 Q. And --

20 A. Breast cancer.

21 Q. And you were told that your uncle was going to be arrested,
22 right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You were told that your wife's cousin was going to be
25 arrested?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And do you remember being asked the question by Mr. Master
3 about whether you were composed?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And let me put a different meaning on that. Were you
6 relaxed at that point?

7 A. No.

8 Q. You were asked by Mr. Master whether you knowingly and 9 intentionally told a lie, right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Could you describe what your own mental state was when you
12 sat there at that table being accused by those public
13 officials, being accused by a deputy commissioner of the 14 department of investigation and representatives of the United 15 States Attorney's Office, can you tell the Court what was going 16 through your mind and what fears you had.

17 A. I was overwhelmed beyond belief. And I was frightened. I
18 was afraid about my mother. I was afraid about my wife. I was 19 afraid about myself. I was afraid about everybody. They asked
20 me to tell them who I paid bribes to. And I told them I did
21 not pay any bribes. And when they finished their convincing
22 crossroads speech I told them I don't have anything to add.
23 I'm not going to agree to testify and come up with stories that
24 never happened. They didn't like that answer, so.

25 Q. So when you sat there with those officers and agents that

1 day, were you making conscious decisions to lie?

2 A. No.

3 MR. SHARGEL: No further questions.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Master, any further questions?

5 MR. MASTER: Nothing further, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: You can step down, sir.

7 (Witness excused)

8 Mr. Shargel, are you calling any further witnesses?

9 MR. SHARGEL: No further witnesses. And I rest. And 10 what I'd like to do, with the Court's permission because of 11 the -- if I may, twists and turns of this hearing, I would like
12 to submit something in writing in very short order because I
13 want to submit something in writing not only on the factual
14 inconsistencies and improbabilities of the government witnesses
15 but the applicable case law in a hearing of this nature.

16 THE COURT: When would you like to do that?

17 MR. SHARGEL: I could do it -- I wish Evan were here
18 but he's busy having his baby. So two weeks. Could I have two 19 weeks?

20 THE COURT: Can you do it by Friday, August 2?

21 MR. SHARGEL: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Government, how much time would you like
23 to respond?

24 MR. MASTER: One week is fine, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Then let's say by August 9.

D7m9mazh

1 Are you going to be available that next week, the week
2 of say maybe August 14 so we can address the motion and I can
3 hear you further with regard to the other motion? We still 4 have a motion outstanding.

5 MR. SHARGEL: The 666 motion?

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 MR. SHARGEL: I'm completely free on the 14th.

8 THE COURT: What about 11:00 on the 14th we can
9 address the motions so we can move those out of here.

10 MR. SHARGEL: That's fine, your Honor.

11 MR. MASTER: Fine with the government.

12 THE COURT: Then I'll see all the parties on the 13 14th of August at 11:00. We'll resolve the outstanding
14 motions with regard to Mr. Mazer and then we can move forward
15 to the next date which is -- I think it's the pretrial
16 conference date for September 18. So I'll see all the parties
17 then.
